Engineering Report

Scott Weaver said he needs two more signatures on the PennVest Loan. The PennVest loan should be closed out soon. The borough has not received an amortization schedule to show payments and the balance of the PennVest loan.

Scott Weaver said Lansvale Street is slated to be paved March 2015. The bill will be paid by PC Construction Company of South Burlington, Vermont due to their tri-axil trucks using the street.

Old Business:

Subdivision and Land Development Ordinance

Stephanie Stoner, Chair of Planning Commission continues to work on the corrections to the ordinance.

New Business:

M&T Bond Return

A motion was made by Alexandria Snyder, seconded by Gary Perry and approved unanimously to return the M&T Bond.

Pennoni Rate Schedule, Advertising for a Part-Time Police Officer and Fire Company Requesting of Tax Exoneration

A motion was made by Alexandria Snyder, seconded by Gary Perry and approved unanimously to:

1. Accept Pennoni's Rate Schedule
2. Advertise for a Part-Time police officer
3. Exonerate 334 Cameron Street from the tax roles. The Marysville Fire Company owns the property. All utilities have been disconnected. The Marysville Fire Company is planning on using 334 Cameron Street for firemen training prior to the demolition of the structure.

Correspondence:

Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development reviewed the application for financial assistance for the Diamond Square and Heritage Park cannot be funded because the applicant does not demonstrate adequate match of other funds.

Capital Region Council of Governments accepts the letter of withdrawal from Marysville Borough.

Capital Region Council of Governments will continue to copy Scott on e-mails regarding Morton Salt and Worknet.

Public Comment

Rob Richmond, President of Marysville Fire Company presented Scott Weaver with a plaque recognizing Scott's 34 years of dedicated service as a firefighter. Scott was the fire chief for 13 years from 2001 to 2014 and belonged to the Marysville Fire Company from 1980 to 2014.

Scott Weaver was very honored and thankful to receive such a plaque from the Marysville Fire Company.

Steve Copp was glad to see the amount of firemen that came to the borough council meeting to see him to accept the plaque.
