Junior Council

Yevgeny Ivashchuk apologized for not attending last month's meeting.

Yevgeny spoke about what is happening at Susquenita High School:

- There is a board meeting on February 10th (Already passed), please attend
- Recently the school defeated Policy 227.1, which mandated Random Drug Testing. Students participating in extracurricular activities will not be obligated to take drug tests anymore.
- On February the 12th, Model UN participants will be holding Red Hand day, where people will donate a dollar per hand print on a large sheet of paper. That paper is sent to the UN in New York, and then all of the handprints that are collected from school are then sent to various countries around the world where there are child soldiers.
- AP U.S. History and Spanish Honor Society are currently selling churros for a fundraiser.
- Model UN will be held in Youngstown, OH this year.
- The Best and the brightest competitions have commenced.
- Money is being collected in homerooms to go towards the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.
- Numerous workshops are being held after school. For more information, go the school's homepage at www.susq.k12.pa.us.
- Maranda Hoover hit a mile stone of 1,000 points in basketball.
